Weekly History Channel series reviews 'This Week in History'

By Kenneth Talley
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

For once, the title really says it all: "This Week in History."

That's exactly what The History Channel examines in a new hour-long series premiering Friday, Aug. 11. The anchors, Emmy winner Giselle Fernandez and Peabody Award winner Josh Binswanger, review memorable moments that have occurred during that given calendar week.

The first hour, which covers Aug. 11-17 over the years, encompasses such events as the division of East and West Berlin, the arrival of the first prisoners at Alcatraz, the opening of the Panama Canal, the death of Elvis Presley, and the 1945 celebration of V-J Day.

It's an eclectic mixture, and that's just the way Fernandez and Binswanger like it.

"We use the tag line 'One week holds an amazing wealth of history,' and that's the whole point of the series: to look at the history of sports, politics, entertainment, and at the tragedies and triumphs of any area of life during any given week," Fernandez says.

"And it's not eclectic just in subjects, but also in the variety in perspectives. We're not just talking about the opening of Alcatraz (in the first show). We're talking about the people who lived beyond the prison walls on the compound, the employees' families who had to live there in the middle of the bay. What did they think when Al Capone arrived, or when the entire prison erupted in riots? These were kids who grew up outside the walls of a notorious prison and remember it fondly. That gives you a whole different perspective on the story."

The feature on the Panama Canal likewise takes a very personal angle, Fernandez points out.

"Here is the son of a man who helped build that canal, who personally knows of the blood, sweat and tears that went into its construction," she says. "More than 25,000 lives were lost; he brings that fact to life. That lifts the story of the canal beyond politics into the human realm, so the information hits you in a very different way."

The very first feature story — concerning the rise of the Berlin Wall — gets the hour and the series off to an electrifying start. Far from a dry recitation of facts illustrated by stock archival footage, "This Week in History" serves up a first-person eyewitness account via Hagen Koch, who was a 21-year-old member of East Germany's secret police on that August day when he was sent out with a piece of white chalk in his hand.

"I was given the command to go to Checkpoint Charlie (the line of demarcation between East and West Berlin) and draw a thick white line across the street, right leg in the East, left leg in the West," Koch recalls today. "(I was) utterly convinced that we in the East were good, in favor of peace and socialism. The West, that's where the bad guys were."

Archival footage chillingly captures the moments after 1 a.m. on Aug. 13, 1961, when without warning, armed soldiers formed a living barrier to stop the flow from East Germany to the West. The subsequent three decades of misery are chronicled by on-camera historians, as well as a man who risked his life hiding for hours in a freezing river while trying to cross the border.

Fox, not Brenneman, played Doyle on 'ER'

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

Every time I see "Judging Amy," I think the star played Dr. Doyle on "ER." Am I right? -"Lisa in Sussex."

No, Jorja Fox — now playing Gina Toscano, the Secret Service special agent assigned to the president's daughter on "The West Wing" — previously starred as Dr. Maggie Doyle on "ER." That's Amy Brenneman in the title role of "Judging Amy."

I recently saw the circus movie "Toby Tyler" on the Disney Channel. I recognized two actors who also had played Sgt. Demetrio Lopez Garcia and the mute manservant Bernardo on Disney's "Zorro." Who are they and what are they doing now? -Pat Gangloff, Hobbs, N.M.

Those were character actors Henry Calvin (Sgt. Garcia) and Gene Sheldon (Bernardo), two Disney contract players who often appeared together. In addition to "Toby Tyler" and their recurring "Zorro" roles, they also played Barnaby's (Ray Bolger) comic henchmen in Disney's "Babes in Toyland."

The heavyset Calvin, a Dallas native, appeared in the original cast of the Broadway musical "Kismet." He died in his hometown in 1975.

Sheldon, who specialized in banjo playing and pantomime, died in 1982.

While watching a cartoon with my kids, I noticed that Mark Hamill provided one of the voices. As a "Star Wars" fanatic, I was wondering what other shows he has worked on. -K.B., Circleville, Ohio.

At 48, Hamill is in such demand as a voice performer that listing all his credits would fill up this column. He is perhaps best known for his work as the Joker in "Batman: The Animated Series," but he also has lent his voice to "Sinbad: Beyond the Veil of Mists," "Gen 13," "Scooby-Doo on Zombie Island," "Cow and Chicken," "The Legend of Calamity Jane," "Pepper Ann," "Bruno the Kid," "The Incredible Hulk," "Spider-Man," "Phantom 2040" and "The Fantastic Four."

Sunday's Best Bets

WTA Tennis
2 p.m. on FOX

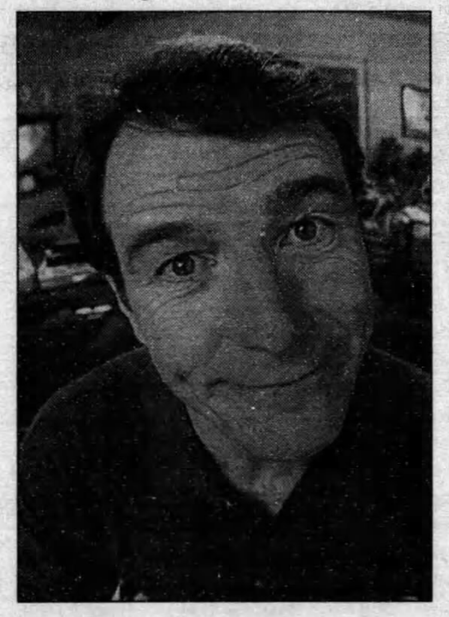
The finals of the Acura Classic in San Diego should feature a world-class conclusion to one of the WTA Tour's most popular events. The tournament began a week ago with a star-studded player list, headed by Martina Hingis and Lindsay Davenport.

Major League Soccer
3 p.m. on ABC

Maybe Hillary Rodham Clinton — who donned a New York Yankees cap for a photo to woo voters in her new adopted home state — will soon claim to be a MetroStars fan. The MLS club, in Chicago today to take on the Fire, controls first place in the Eastern Division, a stark contrast to last season's league-worst 7-25 record. Much of the credit for the worst-to-first turnaround goes to new head coach Octavio Zambrano, whose .684 winning percentage with Los Angeles is the best in league history.

When Animals Talk
7 p.m. on A&E

Dr. Dolittle had the right idea. Research is showing that animal language isn't that far removed from our own; it's a matter of learning the vocabulary. This fascinating two-hour special looks at how a variety of critters communicate, from dogs to frogs, chimpanzees to bees. Chimp expert Jane Goodall explains how her favorite apes communicate with facial expressions, while dog expert Stanley Coren offers some insight into what that alleged "I love you" behavior on Fido's part really means. And a bird named Alex proves that parrots can do more than, well, parrot.



Bryan Cranston
MALCOLM IN THE MIDDLE

Movie: One Kill
7 p.m. on SHOW

The deck is stacked against Mary Jane O'Malley (Anne Heche), a decorated U.S. Marine, after she kills a man who broke into her home. The dead man was her ex-lover, who'd turned into an abusive, obsessive stalker, so it looks like justifiable homicide. But he was also a decorated Marine himself, and a war hero, so the corps is bending over backwards to make Mary Jane the villain, charging her with premeditated murder.

Malcolm in the Middle
7:30 p.m. on FOX

In "Shame," Malcolm (Frankie Muniz) whips the tar out of a big bully and is mortified to discover he's just beaten up a "little kid." The bully is bigger than Malcolm, but he's only 7 years old. While his family actually sees humor in the situation, Malcolm is riddled with guilt and seeks a way to atone. Jane Kaczmarek and Bryan Cranston also star.

Does Rosie plan to retire?

A relaxing vacation turned into an adventure for Sally Jessy Raphael during a summer sojourn to the romantic destinations of Turkey and Greece.

She and her party were on a boat en route to the Greek island of Mykonos when a storm blew up out of nowhere, forcing the ship's captain off course. They ended up docking at the little-known island of Monemvasia. Not exactly a tourist trap, this "off the beaten path" locale had a grand total of four stores!

Raphael, however, was delighted by the tiny island's authenticity and charm.

She found a local winery and ended up staying on for a while, even after the storm passed.

Raphael, ever the trouper, must live by the motto "the show must go on."

She raced back to the states to tape a week's worth of shows before heading to Nice, France, to spend quality time in the new home she purchased sight unseen.

Talk the Talk

She might run into Judge Jerry Sheindlin of "The People's Court" and his famous wife, Judge Judy, who also have a trip to France planned for this summer. They're taking a 10-day journey to Paris before picking up their gavels again this fall.

The travel coordinator for the Raphael show had his own crisis recently.

He lost a briefcase containing a corporate credit card, travel plans for a multitude of guests, the travel budget for the show and other corporate secrets.

Only another talk show travel coordinator could understand the relief he felt after receiving a call from the Metropolitan Transportation Authority.

The bag was discovered in the lost and found office for the New York subway system. Unbelievably, only one thing was missing — a red "Sally" umbrella worth $10!

Sally Jessy Raphael

The umbrella might increase in value if Raphael keeps working for a few more years. She may be one of the few remaining female talk show hosts by then.

Rumors are flying that Kathie Lee Gifford is not alone in desiring something different.

Apparently, Rosie O'Donnell has not made much of a secret of the fact that she will be looking to wrap up her show at the end of the 2001-02 season.

Monday's Best Bets

Movie: Columbo: Ashes to Ashes

7 p.m. on ABC

Peter Falk dons his trademark rumpled raincoat for this adventure, which finds Lt. Columbo investigating the disappearance of a Hollywood gossip columnist (Rue McClanahan). Veteran villain-portrayer Patrick McGoohan, who also directed, co-stars as a high-profile mortician who is the prime suspect. Sally Kellerman and Richard Riehle also star in this 1998 mystery.

Opposite Sex

7 p.m. on FOX

It's that special time of year at Evergreen Academy, the week when the sophomores are assigned to do the seniors' bidding. For Jed (Milo Ventimiglia), that means waiting on Joely (guest star Nicki Lynn Aycox, "Providence"), an outspoken lesbian. He's not looking forward to this enforced relationship, but he manages to come out of it with some new insights into girls in general and gay girls in particular. Kyle Howard and Chris Evans also star in "The Homosexual Episode."

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

Her generous makeup, her expensive tastes and her tendency toward tears made her an easy target for parody. But it was the sex scandal involving her then-husband, Jim, that thrust her into the harshest spotlight of her career. "Tammy Faye Bakker" profiles the female half of TV's flashiest pair of evangelists, who parlayed the success of their "PTL Club" TV show into an empire, complete with a popular Christian theme park and a lavish lifestyle. Revelations about Jim's extramarital activities and shady financial dealings broke up the empire and the marriage, but they didn't break Tammy, who remarried, tried secular TV and kept on singing. A new documentary about her life, "The Eyes of Tammy Faye," was a Grand Jury Award nominee at this year's Sundance Film Festival.

COLUMBO: ASHES TO ASHES

Courage

8 p.m. on FAM

America's unsung heroes will no longer be unsung if this new series has anything to do with it. Each episode presents stories of real people showing extraordinary courage, and not just saving lives. "Pilot" has several stories of lifesavers — a crossing guard who saved two children from being run over, a teen who rescued his family from a wrecked plane, an injured medic in Vietnam who literally put his life on the line to save two other men — but there's also the story of an 11-year-old double amputee who's winning accolades as a competitive swimmer and runner. Actor Danny Glover hosts.

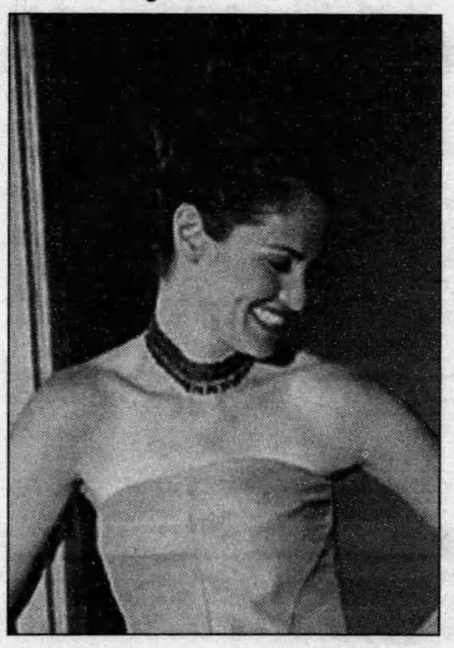
Tuesday's Best Bets

Movie: The Age of Innocence
5:40 p.m. on TMC

Director Martin Scorsese, better known for such gritty classics as "Taxi Driver," "Raging Bull" and "GoodFellas," surprised everyone with this elegant 1993 drama based on a novel by Edith Wharton. Set in 1870s New York, when upper-class marriages were more business mergers than love matches, it's the tale of a man (Daniel Day-Lewis) torn between his very proper betrothal to the right woman (Winona Ryder) and his passion for her cousin (Michelle Pfeiffer), the free-spirited estranged wife of a Polish count. The film was nominated for five Oscars, including best supporting actress for Ryder, and won for costumes.

3rd Rock From the Sun
7 p.m. on NBC

Dick (John Lithgow), who came to Earth in middle-aged form, joins his students on spring break for a taste of the youth he never had. Back home, his family's (Kristen Johnston, French Stewart, Joseph Gordon-Levitt) attention is captured by a state investigator (guest star Miguel Ferrer) who's helping Rutherford's finest with a stakeout at Chez Solomon. Wayne Knight also stars in "Youth Is Wasted on the Dick."



Amy Brenneman
JUDGING AMY

Sammy
7:30 p.m. on NBC

Some critics gave this animated outing from David Spade ("Just Shoot Me") a chilly reception, but his die-hard fans may think otherwise. Spade draws on his own life for the tale of a successful TV sitcom star named James Blake trying to rebuild a relationship with his less-than-perfect dad, Sammy.

Dharma & Greg
8 p.m. on ABC

Why has Greg (Thomas Gibson) developed a sexual fixation about his day planner? It seems he can't do anything in the bedroom without consulting his schedule first. Does it have something to do with charting fertile days? Isn't that the woman's job? In any event, Dharma (Jenna Elfman) is getting a little paranoid about the whole situation.

Judging Amy
9 p.m. on CBS

Can you be a hands-on parent if you can't touch your child? That's what Amy (Amy Brenneman) must decide when a motherless 7-year-old girl's father and stepfather fight for sole custody. The stepdad has been raising the child for years, but the biological father is, well, the biological father. And there's an added wrinkle: The biological father has obsessive-compulsive disorder and is incapable of physical contact.

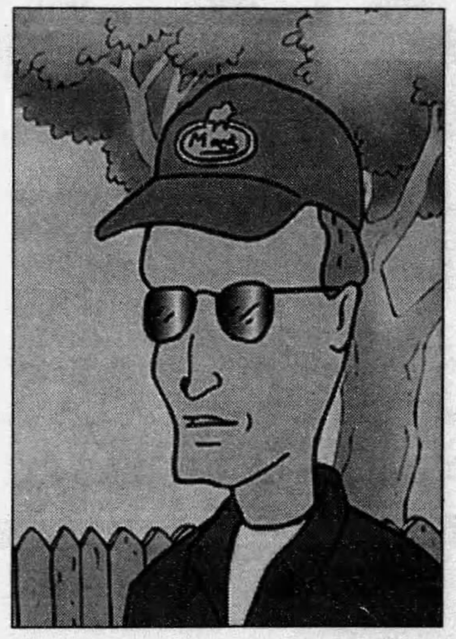
Wednesday's Best Bets

ing of the Hill
p.m. on FOX

Doesn't every little boy want to be firefighter when he grows up? ank, Dale, Bill and Boomhauer t their chance when the local fire- hters go on strike and volunteers e needed. But something about dulging that childhood dream ings out the little boys in them, rning the firehouse into some- ing resembling summer camp on e counselor's day off. Soon it's me for the guys to fight their first e, but while they're out doing at, the firehouse burns down. hatdunit: Bill's roasted marsh- allow, Boomhauer's tanning lamp Dale's cigarette? Mike Judge rs in "A Firefightin' We Will Go."

Ripley's Believe It or Not!
7:05 p.m. on TBS

The lady or the tiger? How about all of the above? A woman tattooed from head to toe with tiger stripes is actually half of an odd couple; her husband also has tattoos all over — in a jigsaw puzzle pattern. Another unusual pair spotlighted in this latest hour of oddities is the contortionist team of Daniel Smith and Otgo Waller, who can fit themselves into teeny-tiny spaces. Less bizarre are the cases of a young woman with an amazing capacity for holding her breath underwater and a blind man who has developed his own system of sonar to find his way around.



Dale
KING OF THE HILL

Norm
7:30 p.m. on ABC

In "Norm vs. Christmas," enthusiastic yule booster Norm (Norm Macdonald) discovers that Laurie (Laurie Metcalf) has no use for the holiday. But Charles Dickens and countless Christmas-themed sitcom episodes have proved that it's possible to convert a scrooge, so Norm gets busy.

The West Wing
8 p.m. on NBC

C.J. (Allison Janney) tracks a memo critical of the Bartlet administration to an inside source: Mandy (Moira Kelly). Now she has to track down the reporter who has gotten hold of the memo — prepared for the president's (Martin Sheen) rival — and talk him out of publishing it. Sam and Toby meet with bigwigs to discuss a possible change in policy toward gays in the service.

Star Trek: Voyager
8 p.m. on UPN

Kim Rhodes ("Another World") guest stars in "Ashes to Ashes" as Ensign Ballard, a long-dead member of the Voyager crew who has been brought back to life by the Kobali, aliens who reproduce by reanimating the dead. She wants to pick up where she left off with her old crewmates, especially Harry Kim (Garrett Wang), but the Kobali presence in her body is causing major complications.

Thursday's Best Bets

Movie: Boys on the Side

7 p.m. on FOX

Unsuccessful singer Jane, fastidious real estate agent Robin and battering victim Holly share a ride to the West Coast — a trip that turns into "Thelma & Louise" for three after Holly's boyfriend dies from the injuries she inflicted in her escape attempt. Along the way, these very different women forge not only friendship, but family ties as they help one another deal with their respective big issues: Jane's sexuality, Robin's health and Holly's legal troubles. Whoopi Goldberg, Mary-Louise Parker and Drew Barrymore star in this 1995 comedy-drama, a roller-coaster ride of comedy and tear-jerkery from director Herbert Ross.

7 p.m. on WB

Nicole (Tammy Lynn Michaels) has plenty of company when she's inadvertently sent to a boot-camp-style sensitivity training program. Josh, Harrison and Sugar Daddy are there ahead of her, thanks to some comments they made to Lily (Tamara Mello). Then spying in the locker room gets Carmen and Mary Cherry (Sara Rue, Leslie Grossman) shipped off to the camp as well to learn something about sexual harassment. Carly Pope and Leslie Bibb also star in "Booty Camp."

JUST SHOOT ME

On the Inside

7 p.m. on DISC

What is a cult? How the word is defined can depend on who's doing the defining; it's been applied to the Mormons, the addiction recovery movement and even multilevel marketing groups. But the out-of-the-mainstream religions that most often attract the designation have something in common: a charismatic leader such as the Branch Davidians' David Koresh, Heaven's Gate's Marshall Applewhite or the People's Temple's Jim Jones. "Cults" talks with experts to find out how these leaders exert such a pull over their followers and what compels people to sacrifice everything, including life, for them. The program also looks at deprogrammers and anti-cult organizations as they tread the thin line between stopping dangerous groups and respecting religious freedom.

Just Shoot Me

8:30 p.m. on NBC

Finch's (David Spade) luck is turning in "Hot Nights in Paris." He manages to persuade Maya (Laura San Giacomo) to move in with Elliott (Enrico Colantoni), freeing up her apartment for him. And he even has a hot date to share his first night in his new digs. But oops! Things aren't going as well for Maya and Elliott, and she wants to move back. Now all Finch has to do is get the strange woman out of the bathtub.

Friday's Best Bets

Movie: Psycho
2 p.m. on AMC

Director Alfred Hitchcock broke all the rules and invented some powerful new ones in this 1960 masterpiece of terror about motel manager Norman Bates and his doting but demanding "mother." Anthony Perkins, Janet Leigh, Vera Miles, John Gavin and Martin Balsam star in this stylish thriller that enables the viewer to see violence that isn't there.

NFL Preseason Football
7 p.m. on CBS

CBS dives into the summer football pool with a preseason game featuring the New York Giants at the Jacksonville Jaguars. While the Giants travel to Florida, coach Jim Fassel will probably have them thinking about the road they must take to reach the playoffs this season. Strong play from quarterback Kerry Collins and a competent running game starring rookie Ron Dayne should get them there. The Jags should challenge for a Super Bowl berth in the AFC, provided QB Mark Brunell stays healthy.

Providence
7 p.m. on NBC

Syd (Melina Kanakaredes) makes a potentially dangerous misdiagnosis in "Mother and Child." She wrongly attributes a young patient's trouble to Munchausen syndrome by proxy — the disorder that causes mothers to sicken or injure their children to get attention. Robbie's (Seth Peterson) budding relationship with Heather (Dana Daurey) hits a snag when her ex-boyfriend shows up. Mike Farrell also stars.

Danielle Fishel
BOY MEETS WORLD

Movie: Interview With the Vampire
7 p.m. on MAX

Anne Rice wrote the screenplay for this drama based on her novel. Tom Cruise, Brad Pitt and Christian Slater star in the tale of a brooding 200-year-old vampire who never came to terms with his supernatural existence. He consoles himself by telling his story to a journalist. Directed by Neil Jordan, the movie also stars Antonio Banderas and Kirsten Dunst.

Boy Meets World
7:30 p.m. on ABC

The approach of graduation has Eric (Will Friedle) mulling his future and thinking that a job in his father's wilderness store just might be the way to go. Cory (Ben Savage) has an attack of hypochondria and seeks more TLC from Topanga (Danielle Fishel). Rider Strong and Trina McGee-Davis also star in "I'm Gonna Be Like You, Dad."

Saturday's Best Bets

PGA Championship: Prelude to the Season's Final Major

1 p.m. on CBS

Are there any adjectives left to describe Tiger Woods? CBS devotes an hour to the upcoming PGA Championship, where Woods defends his title beginning Thursday. It's a preview of the entire field, but why bother mentioning anyone else? Woods' game is at a point now where the other golfers are playing for second place.

Movie: 2gether

6 p.m. on MTV

This affectionate satire of the boy-band craze stars Alan Blumenfeld as the newly unemployed manager of a hot young group who sets out to prove that its success was no fluke. His self-imposed mission: to turn a group of unknowns into the next great singing-heartthrob sensation in only a week. The brand-new band's adventures continue in a series premiering next week on the cable channel. Kevin Farley (brother of the late Chris), Evan Farmer and Alex Solowitz also star.

Movie: Mother Knows Best

7 p.m. on ABC

Joanna Kerns stars as a murderous mother-in-law in this suspenseful 1997 drama. When her daughter (Christine Elise) marries beneath her social status, the proud mother (Kerns) first tries to discredit her son-in-law (Grant Show). But when she cannot ruin his fortunes, she tries to have him killed. Jessica Walter also stars.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP

Movie: Richie Rich

7 p.m. on NBC

Macaulay Culkin stars in the title role of this 1994 comedy about the richest boy in the world. Complications arise for the youngster who has everything money can buy when he uncovers a villainous executive's scheme to cash in on the family fortune. Directed by Donald Petrie, the movie also stars John Larroquette, Edward Herrmann and Christine Ebersole.

Movie: Runaway Bride

7 p.m. on SHOW

This 1999 reunion of Richard Gere and Julia Roberts doesn't have the magic of "Pretty Woman," but Roberts can't help but light up the screen. This time around, she plays a woman who's left several men at the altar. Gere's character, a sexist newspaperman, hears the story and writes a scathing column about her. She makes irate contact, they meet, and you know what happens next. Joan Cusack, Paul Dooley, Hector Elizondo and Rita Wilson also star, with Christopher Meloni ("Law & Order: Special Victims Unit") as one of the husbands-not-to-be.

Musicians in tune with good causes "Stand and Be Counted"

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

For thousands of years, rebels with a cause and a song have let their feelings be known. In the past 50 years, those songs have helped to effect change for millions of people as artists championed the underdogs, railed against injustices and tried to stop wars, environmental disasters and torture.

Despite millions of people attending benefit concerts, tremendous sums of money raised, and food and supplies delivered all over the world — all as a result of musicians and activists who care — the story of how and why this movement came to be has never been told. That will change Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 21 and 22, when The Learning Channel (TLC) premieres the documentary special "Stand and Be Counted."

David Crosby (the Byrds; Crosby, Stills & Nash) decided to record artists recounting how they believe music brings about social change while working with David Bender, a political activist, to interview them for a book. While setting up an interview with Whoopi Goldberg, she told him to bring a camera. When Crosby asked why, she replied, "Because it's supposed to be a documentary, fool."

Four years later, it is. And the documentary shows some of the highlights of what went wrong over the past 50 years. But it's not just a recitation of horrors. The program shows how artists stood up to be counted — and in so doing, inspired others to follow. Among those interviewed during the four hours are Harry Belafonte, Tracy Chapman, Peter Gabriel, Bonnie Raitt, Phil Collins, Willie Nelson, Robin Williams, Joan Baez, Sting, Arlo Guthrie, Bono, Carlos Santana and Pete Seeger.

The artists, speaking to Crosby about issues with which they have long been identified, give truly heartfelt answers. Interspersed are clips from old concerts and the news events that prompted them.

"Wherever I go in the world and I look for forces that are struggling against injustice, I always seem to find somebody with a guitar and a voice, and they're always singing to something that inspires the community, no matter how ravaged that community may be," Belafonte says.

And should anyone suspect that there's money in it for the artists, Raitt adds, "Is music and selling records the end of all existence? I don't think so! Not to mention we get overcompensated. ... We owe it to give the money back and spread it around."

Crosby explains how the first known benefit concert — and anti-war demonstration — happened after the Civil War when a chorus of 2,000 sang about peace with an orchestra of 1,000. The modern turning point came, Bender says, when George Harrison took up the cause of the starving Bangladeshis. He persuaded his musician friends to take the stage with him, and their song was heard around the world. Soon children were going door to door collecting canned food for the hungry kids a world away.

PURON is good
by Sarah
Last summer, a nice man called Bryant came to our house with an air conditioner. He told us it has Puron, which will keep us cool and make the planet happy. He said that pretty soon they're not going to make the old kind of air conditioners anymore, so this one will save us money. And saving money is good.

Cox played Alex's girlfriend on "Ties"

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

I distinctly remember Courteney Cox playing the girlfriend of Alex P. Keaton (Michael J. Fox) on "Family Ties," but my friend says it was the actress who became his real-life wife, Tracy Pollan. Are we both right? -Lisa D. in Fayetteville, Ga.

Yes. Alex P. Keaton met and began dating Ellen Reed (Pollan) shortly after he began classes at Leland College. Later, he dated psychology student Lauren Miller (Cox).

Can you help me remember the name of the show in the late '80s or early '90s involving a young werewolf who was being stalked by a relentless hunter while searching for an older werewolf? Also, do you know anything about a pilot that aired about the same time with John Rhys-Davies ("Sliders") searching for a young man with telekinetic powers? -Matthew via e-mail.

"Werewolf" (Fox, 1987-88) starred John J. York as Eric Cord, a young graduate student who could cure himself of being a werewolf only by hunting down and killing "the source of the bloodline," Janoes Skorzeny, played by Chuck Connors. Unfortunately, Eric himself was being pursued by bounty hunter Alamo Joe Rogan (Lance LeGault). Viewers were left hanging when the series was canceled.

The pilot you mention sounds like "The Gifted One," a 1989 TV movie also starring Brandon Call of "Step by Step."

My friend insists that Tyne Daly is the daughter of former "What's My Line" host John Daly. I say her father is a completely different John Daly. Can you enlighten us? -Alex E. Valibus, Minersville, Pa.

The late actor James Daly ("Medical Center") was the father of both Tyne Daly and her brother, former "Wings" star Tim Daly.

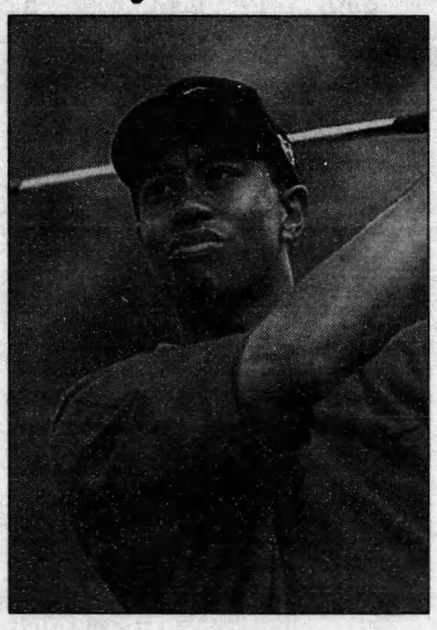
Sunday's Best Bets

Golf
9:30 a.m. on TNT CBS

The questions began long before today's final round of the season's final major, the PGA Championship. What will it take to beat defending champion Tiger Woods? Ernie Els, for one, doesn't have the answer. Els has finished second to Woods four times this year, including the U.S. and British Opens. Entering last week's Buick Open, Woods had won 13 of his last 23 tournaments, including three majors by a combined 24 strokes. With another victory today, he would become the first player since Ben Hogan in 1953 to win three majors in one year.

Gymnastics
11 a.m. on NBC

The top American gymnasts convene at the Fleet Center in Boston for the U.S. Olympic Trials, a competition that amounts to a tuneup for some athletes and a last chance for others before the Sydney Games. For the women, Elise Ray emerged from a star-studded field to win the all-around title at the U.S. Championships last month, joining five-time national men's champion Blaine Wilson as locks to make the team. They are still required to compete here, but the pressure is squarely on the shoulders of those on the "bubble," such as former Olympians Dominique Moceanu and John Roethlisberger.



Tiger Woods
GOLF

Movie: High Noon
7 p.m. on TBS

Tom Skerritt ("Picket Fences") takes over the Gary Cooper role in this new remake of the 1952 classic Western. He plays about-to-retire lawman Will Kane, whose plans to settle down with a new young wife (Susanna Thompson, "Once and Again") are thwarted by the impending arrival of Frank Miller (Michael Madsen), a murderous outlaw he helped put away years earlier. This bad guy is so bad that not even Kane's deputy (Reed Diamond, "Homicide: Life on the Street") will help the boss bring him down. It's up to Kane to save his town and himself when Miller arrives on the noon train. Dennis Weaver and Maria Conchita Alonso also star.

Last One Standing: Nebraska
7 p.m. on USA

It's like "Survivor" without the million bucks, without the tribal councils and definitely without the ocean. In this special, the prize is a tractor, and the winner is the person who can keep his hands on it the longest. A sheriff's deputy, two farmers, a grandmother and a college student are among those hoping to win themselves a big set of wheels in this unique endurance contest from rustic Nebraska City, Neb.

High-tech talent search

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

"And now .... heeeere's Johnny!"

Most folks over the age of 30 need no more than those words to identify the speaker. For 30 years, the legendary Johnny Carson was ushered onstage by Ed McMahon and that famous introduction.

McMahon, perhaps the most renowned second banana in television history, is launching yet another television project; this one is a cutting-edge convergence between the Internet and TV.

McMahon's new Website, www.nextbigstar.com, is a talent show on the Internet that culminates in a syndicated televised final competition every 13 weeks. Web browsers are able to view all the different acts 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Internet audiences also can participate in the voting process throughout the cycle.

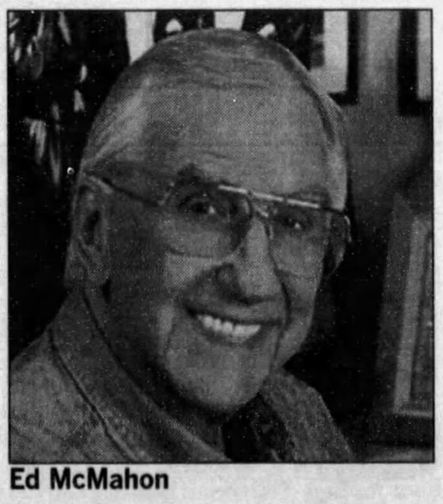
The 77-year old McMahon ("I'm 45 on the inside," he says with a laugh) brings unbridled enthusiasm to this venture, potentially his most exciting career move yet.

Talk the Talk

Best known as Carson's sidekick, McMahon continued life after "The Tonight Show"" with a variety of projects. Who doesn't know he's been the spokesman for the American Family Publishers sweepstakes, or the host of "Star Search," where such talents as talk hosts Jenny Jones and Rosie O'Donnell first caught the public's attention?

The latest reincarnation of "Star Search," www.nextbigstar.com, is just another milestone in McMahon's almost 60 years in broadcasting.

His little-known "early days" include doing the late-night newscast on a Philadelphia CBS station. He had developed 13 shows there when the Korean War intervened, calling the Marine fighter pilot to war.



Ed McMahon

It was after the war that McMahon's favorite career moment occurred. He was hosting a commentary after the news called "Five Minutes More," on a day when acclaimed dancer Ginger Rogers visited the set. Her contract prohibited her from appearing on television, but she allowed him to hold her hand on air.

Monday's Best Bets

Movie: The Fall of the Roman Empire

1:15 p.m. on AMC

Christopher Plummer's performance is a highlight of this historically questionable but impressively epic 1964 drama. He plays Commodus, the emperor's (Alec Guinness) scheming son, whose ascent to power sets in motion the collapse of the mighty empire.

NFL Preseason Football

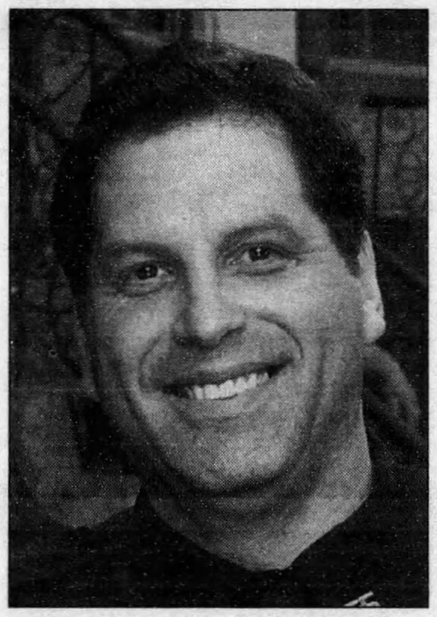
7 p.m. on ABC

The focus will be on the sidelines as much as on the field when the Green Bay Packers travel to Miami to take on the Dolphins. The coaching whirlwind blew into both cities in the off-season, sweeping out the old and installing Mike Sherman in Green Bay and former Bears coach Dave Wannstedt in Miami. Both clubs have a lot to prove, starting at the quarterback position. Can Brett Favre return to All-Pro form, and who will replace future Hall of Famer Dan Marino in South Florida?

Stand and Be Counted

8 p.m. on TLC

From "Union Maid" to Farm Aid, musicians have been using their talents to raise money and consciousness for causes they believe in. A book on the subject co-written by David Crosby is the basis of this two-part special tracing the history of musical activism. Interviewees include the people behind some of the biggest events: Bob Geldof (organizer of Band Aid and inspiration for "We Are the World" and Live Aid), Willie Nelson (Farm Aid) and Sting (concerts for Amnesty International), for starters. The performance footage is a Who's Who of socially conscious singers, from Woody Guthrie to the Fugees. The conclusion airs Tuesday.



Skipp Sudduth
THIRD WATCH

Family Law

9 p.m. on CBS

When Rex (Christopher McDonald) asks Lynn (Kathleen Quinlan) to help him get through to his client, a 10-year-old boy accused of murder, her discomfort with his legal tactics is compounded by the media spotlight shining on the case.

Third Watch

9 p.m. on NBC

A little girl who has wandered away from a car accident has the police, paramedics and firefighters combing the city in "Spring Forward Fall Back." A furious Sully (Skipp Sudduth) is out for blood after a homeless man attacks his priest (James Handy). A small-time drug dealer helps Yokas and Bosco (Molly Price, Jason Wiles) uncover some surprising information about a meth lab. Michael Beach also stars.

Tuesday's Best Bets

3rd Rock From the Sun

7 p.m. on NBC

In "The Loud Solomon Family: A Dickumentary," the Solomons agree to be the subjects of Mary's (Jane Curtin) film about a typical American family. But "typical" hardly describes this merry band of aliens, who explain their strangeness with some wild excuses: Harry (French Stewart) is a lush, Sally is a lesbian, and Tommy is a bed-wetter.

The Teen Choice Awards 2000

7 p.m. on FOX

Who and what are hot with teenagers? Find out in this awards show spotlighting kids' favorite actors, musicians, athletes, movies, TV shows, songs and more. Award categories run the gamut from normal (favorite actor, actress, singer) to off the wall (best movie "sleazebag," best on-screen "hissy fit"). Artists scheduled to perform on the show include 98 Degrees, Enrique Iglesias and No Doubt, a nominee for choice rock group.

Buffy the Vampire Slayer

7 p.m. on WB

Just as Buffy and Riley (Sarah Michelle Gellar, Marc Blucas) are dealing with their new insights into each other, the Hellmouth reopens, forcing Buffy and company back to high school to ward off disaster. Too bad for Spike (James Marsters), whose depression has been lifted by the possibility of apocalypse.

No Doubt
THE TEEN CHOICE AWARDS 2000

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Ted Danson: One Lucky Guy" profiles the handsome actor who's made even a conceited womanizer ("Cheers") and a child molester ("Something About Amelia") into sympathetic characters. He's worked onstage, on a soap and on the big screen, but it's because of his long run as ballplayer-turned-bartender Sam Malone in "Cheers" that everybody knows his name. Interviews with former co-stars JoBeth Williams, Woody Harrelson and Mary Steenburgen — his current wife — help trace the life of the man currently starring in CBS' "Becker," including such rough patches as the aftermath of his controversial blackface appearance at the Friars Club.

NYPD Blue

9 p.m. on ABC

Russell (Kim Delaney) has another close encounter with Harry Denby (guest star Scott Cohen), the undercover drug agent who may be able to solve the mystery surrounding Kirkendall's ex-husband. Sipowicz and Sorenson investigate an unusual domestic situation involving a husband, a wife and an ex-convict.

Wednesday's Best Bets

Survivor
7 p.m. on CBS

This is it, folks. The cast of castaways gets whittled down to two. It's up to the seven most recent rejects to decide who'll be the last one standing. When the reconstituted tribe has spoken, that person returns to civilization a millionaire — before taxes, anyway.

Movie: Star Trek Generations
7 p.m. on FOX

Capt. Picard and his crew take on an alien who'll stop at nothing to gain permanent possession of a bliss-inducing force field. And guess who's been floating around in that field for almost 80 years. None other than James T. Kirk himself, who joins forces with the next generation to stop the madness. This "Trek" feature is the one in which Kirk boldly goes where all men will go eventually, but despite this grand dramatic development, it's Data, newly implanted with the ability to have emotions, who nearly steals the show. Patrick Stewart, William Shatner, Malcolm McDowell, Walter Koenig and Brent Spiner star.

Biography
7 p.m. on A&E

"The Gabors: Fame, Fortune and Romance" profiles the three glamorous daughters of Jolie and Vilmos Gabor, who became as well-known for their personal lives as for their professional endeavors. Eldest sister Magda didn't go into show business, but became a glamour figure by virtue of her actress sisters, Zsa Zsa and Eva. Of the two, Eva had the more stable acting career, starring in TV's "Green Acres" for six years, and better luck with husbands — only five as compared to Zsa Zsa's eight.

STAR TREK GENERATION

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit
8 p.m. on NBC

The two-part story "Entitled" brings together the casts of the acclaimed cop-and-lawyer series and its steamy spinoff. The case they're both working on involves the murder of a man with an unsavory sexual reputation. Tony and Emmy winner Jane Alexander guest stars as the matriarch of a powerful family in which the cops find an unlikely suspect.

The Huntress
9 p.m. on USA

It's their party, and they'll nab whom they want to. Dottie and Brandi decide to clean up some of their lower-level cases by inviting the bail jumpers to a party. We're talking strictly small-time crooks here, so the Thorsons don't see any danger in having them in their house — a wrong assumption, it turns out. Wrestler Bradshaw guest stars in "Surprise Party."

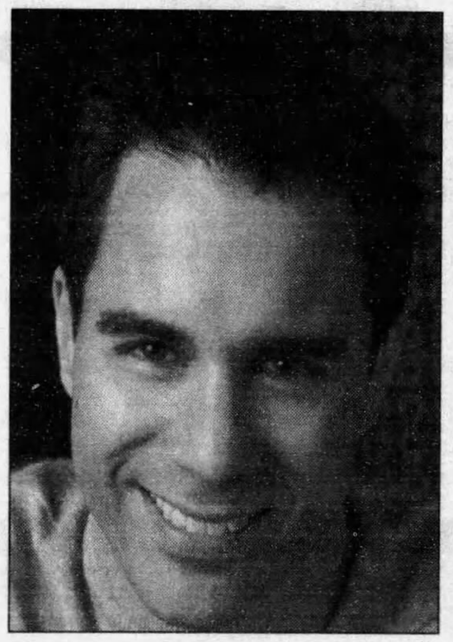
Thursday's Best Bets

Biography
7 p.m. on A&E

She got her start playing flighty characters — literally, in one case — in a pair of 1960s sitcoms, but she's shed that image with a slew of acclaimed dramatic performances. "Sally Field: Defying Gravity" profiles the Pasadena, Calif., native with the girl-next-door looks who turned to acting as a youngster to get over her shyness. It worked, and by age 18 she was a TV star, playing the title role in "Gidget." She scored a bigger hit with her second show, "The Flying Nun," then got serious with an Emmy-winning star turn in the TV movie "Sybil." Since then, Field has won two Oscars; taken up producing and directing; had a third son; and learned to laugh at herself for that much-mocked "You like me" Oscar speech.

Classic Rock: The Hits — The Love Songs
7 p.m. on NASH

The channel that country built branches out in this second special devoted to rock — although some might argue that the featured artists don't quite fit that genre. They include Christopher Cross, who performs his hits "Sailing," "Ride Like the Wind" and "Arthur's Theme"; Stephen Bishop, who sings "It Might Be You" and "On and On"; and the band Ambrosia, which plays "How Much I Feel," "Biggest Part of Me" and "You're the Only Woman (You and I)." Also in the spotlight are singer-songwriter Valerie Carter ("Ooh Child") and James Griffin of Bread.



Eric McCormack
WILL & GRACE

Will & Grace
7:30 p.m. on NBC

In "Seeds of Discontent," Will (Eric McCormack) is visited by his best buddy from his high-school days (Megyn Price, "Mystery, Alaska"), who wants to have a baby — with his help. Needless to say, his current best buddy, Grace (Debra Messing), doesn't like this idea one bit. Next, another blast from the past gives Will and Grace a glimpse at their possible future when they visit their old professor (guest star Orson Bean). Piper Laurie also guest stars in "There, but for the Grace of Grace."

City of Angels
8 p.m. on CBS

Suits and countersuits abound in "Cry Me a Liver." Ron Harris (Michael Warren) relies on a prostitute (guest star Kira Arne) to help him win a case against the hospital by a man who claims surgery left him impotent. Drs. Turner and Price (Blair Underwood, Vivica A. Fox) fight for an ailing boy's right to a long-awaited donor liver after a convicted killer shows up with a more severe need for it. Robert Morse also stars.

Friday's Best Bets

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch
7 p.m. on ABC

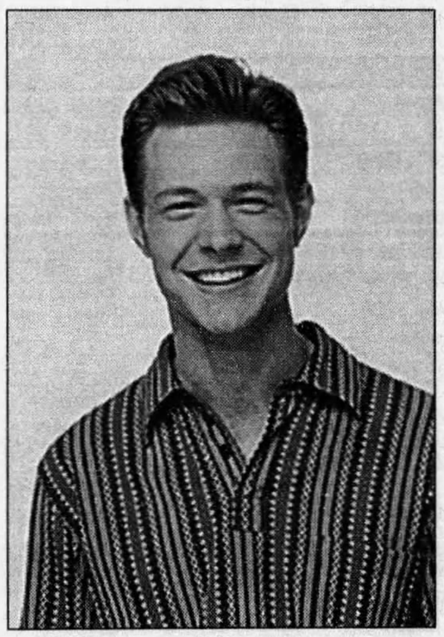
Some girls might enjoy watching two guys fight over them, but for Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart), the rivalry between Josh and Harvey (David Lascher, Nate Richert) over her heart is no fun. She tries to make them friends again with some magic bread, and it works ... too well. Now they're best buddies, and neither has time for her.

Providence
7 p.m. on NBC

Sydney (Melina Kanakaredes) grows more uncomfortable as her father (Mike Farrell) grows more serious about her photographer friend, Monica (Mary Page Keller), in "Love Is in the Air." Sparks of all kinds fly for Joanie (Paula Cale) when she's rescued from a disaster at the Barkery by a hunky firefighter (Jon Hamm). Speaking of fire, Robbie (Seth Peterson) is getting close to the money-to-burn stage as his winning streak on the game show continues. Ed Begley Jr. guest stars as the show's host, Chuck Chance.

Baby Blues
7 p.m. on WB

Peri Gilpin ("Frasier") lends her voice to the superintendent of a nursery school in "Ugly Zoe." Wanda (voice of Julia Sweeney) resorts to drastic measures when Zoe gets sick on the eve of her interview at the school, borrowing a friend's baby to fill in. The substitute Zoe happens to be a boy, but Wanda's banking on nobody looking too closely.



Nate Richert
SABRINA, THE TEENAGE WITCH

Movie: Dead Man's Curve
8 p.m. on USA

Kids, do not try this at school. That story about students getting all A's when their roommates kill themselves is an urban legend. But Tim and Chris (Matthew Lillard, Michael Vartan) believe the myth and decide to up their GPAs by killing their roomie (Randall Batinkoff) and making it look like a suicide. Needless to say, things don't come off exactly according to plan. Keri Russell ("Felicity") also stars in this 1998 comedy-drama.

Investigative Reports
9 p.m. on A&E

If you want to know whether we're winning the war on drugs, ask the troops on the front lines, such as Don Ferrarone. The veteran Drug Enforcement Administration agent spent years patrolling the Mexican border to catch drug smugglers. The 1998 report "Drugs at the Border" follows Ferrarone, who has since retired, as he seeks to stop the endless flow of narcotics into the United States and offers his take on the drug war, which is: It's a losing battle.

Saturday's Best Bets

College Football Countdown to Number One

1 p.m. on ABC

Host John Saunders and analyst Terry Bowden preview ABC's coverage of the college football season, which begins in a few hours with national champion Florida State taking on Brigham Young. Two legendary head coaches — Penn State's Joe Paterno and the Seminoles' Bobby Bowden — offer their insights. Also included in the hour-long special is a feature that focuses on the racial segregation of college football in the South and its impact on a 1970 game between Florida and USC.

Auto Racing

6:30 p.m. on ESPN

The swagger that has characterized the career of Dale Earnhardt shined as bright as the lights illuminating Bristol Motor Speedway, enabling "The Intimidator" to win the controversial Goody's 500 a year ago. It's now known as the Goracing.com 500, but Earnhardt remains the man to watch on the narrow half-mile oval in Tennessee. Terry Labonte will surely keep an eye out. Labonte was on his way to a win here last year with a half-lap to go until Earnhardt's Chevy "bumped" Labonte's, sending him spinning on the backstretch and into an eventual eighth-place finish.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

College Football

7 p.m. on ABC

ABC's 35th consecutive year covering college football starts at the top, with defending national champion Florida State tackling Brigham Young in Jacksonville, Fla. The Seminoles begin defense of their title under the leadership of Heisman Trophy candidate Chris Weinke, the 28-year-old senior quarterback who guided his team, with a little help from Peter Warrick, to a Sugar Bowl win over Virginia Tech with four touchdown passes last January. And with another top recruiting class under his wing, Seminoles coach Bobby Bowden will certainly pad his career total of 304 wins.

Movie: Free Willy 2: The Adventure Home

7 p.m. on NBC

Young Jesse (Jason James Richter) has gotten a bit older and wiser since helping Willy the killer whale escape to freedom. Those traits will come in handy as he struggles to bond with the difficult younger half brother he's just met and to save Willy from a new danger. An oil spill threatens not only Willy's health but his liberty, as some unscrupulous folks see an opportunity to "save" him by returning him to captivity. M. Emmet Walsh, Michael Madsen and Mykelti Williamson also star in this 1995 sequel to 1993's "Free Willy."

AMC's 'Backstory' gives classics a vibrant perspective

By Kenneth Talley
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

If you think you know screen classics such as "All About Eve," "Bonnie and Clyde" and "The Longest Day" inside and out, think again.

"Backstory," an invaluable new series airing Saturdays on American Movie Classics, breathes new life into thrice-familiar films by giving viewers a new way to view and consider the work at hand.

Take that famous image of Marilyn Monroe standing over the subway grating in "The Seven Year Itch," her sheer white dress billowing over her head. You've seen it a million times. It's Hollywood iconography by now.

But somehow it doesn't look the same once you hear how Monroe's then-husband, Joe DiMaggio, was standing off-camera growing increasingly angry and humiliated as crowds of New Yorkers ogled Monroe while that scene was shot. They divorced less than a month later and, ironically, the location footage of that scene was scrapped, replaced by a reshoot on a studio sound stage.

That's just a single example of the behind-the-scenes revelations that "Backstory" holds for movie fans.

"We wanted to provide people with a different context for watching a movie and increase their understanding and appreciation for it," explains Marc Juris, AMC senior vice president of original programming, packaging and production. "By knowing the 'biography' of the movie, if you will, they come away with a greater appreciation of the work and the passion and commitment of the artists and the people behind the film.

Cover story

"It may take us two hours to watch a movie, but it takes thousands of hours to get that movie done, and there are often fascinating stories that help you understand the filmmaking process, the movie business and the demands put on creative talent in a whole different way."

On Saturday, Sept. 2, "Backstory" focuses on one of the greatest combat movies ever made, Darryl F. Zanuck's "The Longest Day," but ingeniously tells its story from the perspective of the even nastier battle that was playing out behind the scenes at Twentieth Century Fox, the studio Zanuck helped build.

While Zanuck and his creative team were in preproduction for "Longest Day," the Elizabeth Taylor remake of "Cleopatra" was relentlessly sucking the fiscal life out of the Fox studios. Zanuck was forced to virtually declare war on "Cleopatra" to save his own project, and the elaborate machinations to which this master showman was driven make for fascinating storytelling, supported by reminiscences from some of the film's participants and Zanuck's son, Richard.

"This is a smart, sophisticated look at movies in a non-marketing way," Juris says of the new AMC series. "Ultimately, we want to tell you the story about this movie. Our mission is not to get you to watch the movie, and the movie (featured in "Backstory") often won't air right next to it. We're not using this as a promotional tool, and that's a very different tonality and positioning than many shows would take."

Most of the "Backstory" entries include footage that was previously unseen or at least deleted from the original theatrical release, as in some of Monroe's steamier scenes in "Itch," highlighted in a recent episode. That episode also included a startling clip from a screen test by the actor director Billy Wilder wanted to cast in the Tom Ewell role: Walter Matthau.

bryant PURON is good
by Sarah
Last summer, a nice man called Bryant came to our house with an air conditioner. He told us it has Puron, which will keep us cool and make the planet happy. He said that pretty soon they're not going to make the old kind of air conditioners anymore, so this one will save us money. And saving money is good.

'King' Kevin James started out in stand-up

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

I think Kevin James ("The King of Queens") is a funny man, but I've never heard much about his private life. Is he married? Also, is Larry Romano from that show related to Ray Romano of "Everybody Loves Raymond"? -J. Smith, El Paso, Texas.

James, who is 35 and single, got his start in stand-up comedy after graduating from the State University of New York College at Cortland.

A 1996 gig at the Just for Laughs International Comedy Festival in Montreal led to a recurring role on best buddy Ray Romano's "Everybody Loves Raymond." His own series soon followed.

Oddly, despite the apparent Romano connection, Larry and Ray Romano are not related.

Pipeline

What is Keshia Knight Pulliam of "The Cosby Show" doing now? -Keren M. in London.

As of this writing, Pulliam, 21, is a student at Atlanta's Spelman College, where she is a sociology major.

She hopes to return to some aspect of show business after graduation.

Can you please tell us which "Malcolm in the Middle" character was played by Justin Pierce, the 25-year-old actor who recently hanged himself? We cannot find his name in the credits. -Roxanne Basnett, Hokes Bluff, Ala.

Pierce appeared in a couple of "Malcolm" episodes as Justin, one of the chums of oldest son Francis (Christopher Kennedy Masterson). He was not a regular on the series.

When I recently mentioned Mary Martin's "Peter Pan" to an under-30 crowd, no one had a clue what I was talking about. Whatever became of this classic program? -Cindy Bissonnette, Manchester, N.H.

Martin did two telecasts of "Peter Pan," and the 1955 presentation was rebroadcast by NBC in the early 1990s.

It has been widely available since then on VHS and DVD, although the former may be somewhat harder to find.

Some of the biggest names in the sport are scheduled to appear, including 1999 U.S. Open men's singles champion Andre Agassi, Pete Sampras, Patrick Rafter, Martina Hingis and Serena Williams, who will participate in exhibition matches and skills competitions.

College Football
1:30 p.m. on ABC

Southern California will try to exact revenge when it tackles Penn State in the first rematch in the Kick-off Classic's 18-year history. These schools met in the 1996 Classic game, with the Nittany Lions coming out on top. The winning tradition on "Classic Weekend" continued last year with Penn State's 41-7 bashing of Arizona in the Pigskin Classic, the first of nine straight wins to open the season. Keith Jackson handles the play-by-play duties from East Rutherford, N.J.

Daria
6 p.m. on MTV

Most kids wish summer vacation would last forever. Not Daria. "Is It Fall Yet?" finds the rapier-witted teen-ager enduring the torture of working as a counselor at a camp for the overly sensitive. And the summer is no picnic for the rest of the gang, either. Quinn is being tutored and wondering if she's lost her touch; her tutor is a guy who's totally unresponsive to her charms. Jodie and Mack are learning the meaning of "precious and few are the moments we two can share" when their summer jobs keep them apart.

The Trojans

Movie: Rob Roy
7 p.m. on NBC

The sweeping battle scenes of 1995's "Braveheart" may have helped that Mel Gibson-directed film seize an Academy Award, but many critics preferred this quieter yet equally effective Scots-themed film from the same year. Liam Neeson plays Rob Roy MacGregor, the 16th-century Scotsman forced to become a highland fugitive.

Movie: Witchblade
7 p.m. on TNT

If Wonder Woman were a cop, she might be Sara Pezzini, heroine of this new sci-fi tale. She's come into possession of a bracelet that carries incredible powers, including a heightened perception of both past and present. As a detective on the mean streets of New York, she'll obviously find some use for them. Yancy Butler stars with David Chokachi ("Baywatch") as her partner, a former surfer dude.

McMahon gets wired

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Comedy remains a mainstay for Ed McMahon with his latest venture, nextbigstar.com.

The site is basically a talent show on the Internet. Web browsers can vote for participants in the categories of their choice. The winners compete at the next level, some earning a place on a live Webcast.

The 13-week competition culminates in a syndicated TV show, where online viewers can vote for the finalists.

It's the ultimate marriage between the Internet and television, and at age 77, McMahon is thrilled to be on the cutting edge of the cyberworld.

"I want people of my generation to get into (the Internet)," he says. "I know 'full of fire in their bellies' former CEOs who are falling apart; all they can talk about is their golf scores now. I get bored. There's a whole wonderful world at our fingertips!"

Talk the Talk

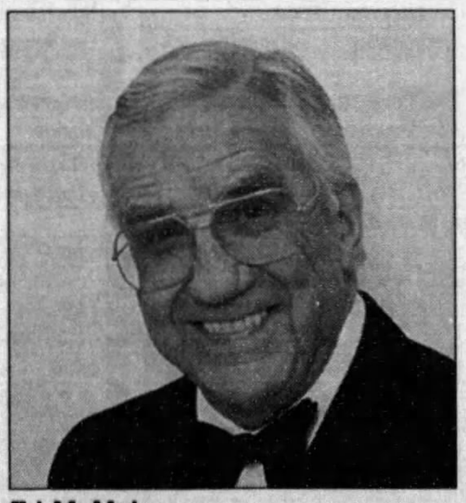
McMahon is contagiously enthusiastic about the potential of his new project.

"Grandma can go online and watch her grandchild perform at 4 a.m. if she can't sleep. It'll help keep her brain circuits connected," he says.

It's clear McMahon's circuits are just fine as he energetically enters yet another chapter of his career.

McMahon's heaviest footprint in television is, of course, the 30 years he spent with Johnny Carson on "The Tonight Show."" What many don't realize, however, is that "Tonight" was not the first collaboration between McMahon and Carson.

"We spent four years on "Who Do You Trust?," a live game show on ABC," McMahon says. "We developed lots of the elements we used on "The Tonight Show." A lot of what you saw — the comedy and the skits — started there."



Ed McMahon

McMahon sees many reasons why "The Tonight Show" was such a huge hit, but believes "the talk element was why it was so successful. The biggest stars came on; Bob Hope would not do his specials unless he could be on Johnny's show the night before."

Television's most famous second banana has many fond memories and guests from his tenure on the legendary show, but his favorite guest is Jimmy Stewart.

Monday's Best Bets

U.S. Open Tennis
10 a.m. on USA

Continuing a tradition started in 1984, USA Network presents prime-time coverage of the U.S. Open from Flushing Meadows, N.Y. The tournament concludes Sept. 10, with CBS carrying the bulk of the weekend matches, including the women's final on Sept. 9 and the men's title match the next day. In a memorable 1999 Open, Serena Williams became a star by winning two titles, defeating Martina Hingis in singles and teaming with her sister, Venus, to capture the doubles crown. On the men's side, the final was an all-American affair as Andre Agassi won his second U.S. Open, beating Todd Martin in five sets.

Golf
7 p.m. on ABC

Without Monday Night Football until next week, ABC has filled the void with what should be another ratings grabber, the "Battle at Bighorn," a one-round match-play duel between Tiger Woods and Sergio Garcia. Woods, the world's top-ranked golfer, defeated David Duval a year ago in the network's first stab at a prime-time golf event.

Bash: Latterday Plays
7 p.m. on SHOW

Writer-director Neil LaBute knows all about depravity. His 1997 film "In the Company of Men" told the chilling tale of two men who break a vulnerable woman's heart for kicks. This trio of one-act plays, actually a collection of monologues, probes even more deeply into the dark side. "Medea Redux" stars Calista Flockhart as a woman recalling how she murdered her own son to avenge the teacher who sired him when she was 13. In "Iphegenia in Orem," a father relates how he, too, killed his own child — to gain sympathy at work.

Patricia Heaton
EVERYBODY LOVES RAYMOND

Everybody Loves Raymond
8 p.m. on CBS

The good news for Ray (Ray Romano) is that Debra's (Patricia Heaton) sex drive is in high gear. The bad news is that he suspects another man is the cause. It seems she's at her most interested after sessions with her hunky exercise instructor, and Ray doesn't know whether to be grateful or jealous.

Investigative Reports
9 p.m. on A&E

If Court TV had a blooper show, the investigation of JonBenet Ramsey's murder would provide several episodes' worth of material. "JonBenet: Anatomy of an Investigation" seeks answers to some of the many questions surrounding the aftermath of the child beauty queen's death. Host Bill Kurtis talks with the FBI agent on the case about the role of the Boulder, Colo., police — a department inexperienced with homicides — as well as the district attorney and the victim's parents.

Tuesday's Best Bets

Access Hollywood's Top 10 of 2000

7 p.m. on NBC

It's only August, but the entertainment news series gets a jump on things with its picks for the year's hottest stars. The top 10 will be those with the highest "phenomenon" quotient: the stars who have generated curiosity, conversation, ratings and sales. Possibilities include Britney Spears, Regis Philbin, Dennis Miller, Michael J. Fox, Jennifer Lopez, Julia Roberts and 'N Sync.

That '70s Show

7 p.m. on FOX

In "Parents Find Out," it's a moment of truth for Eric and Donna (Topher Grace, Laura Prepon) when Red and Kitty (Kurtwood Smith, Debra Jo Rupp) catch them in the, um, act. Now Donna has to tell her folks about her — gasp! — sex life before they hear it from the Formans; needless to say, she's not looking forward to this conversation. Speaking of conversation, the guys seek female companionship using that very 1970s precursor of online chat: a CB Radio. Ashton Kutcher and Wilmer Valderrama also star.

The Source Hip-Hop Music Awards 2000

7 p.m. on UPN

It's ladies night at this year's show honoring the hottest acts in music's hottest genre — at least in the hosting department. Sharing emcee duties with rap star Busta Rhymes are actress-comic Mo'Nique ("The Parkers") and rising star Da Brat, the first female rapper to go platinum (move over, Queen Latifah). Winners are determined by a panel of radio DJs and the votes of fans online. The show airs from the Civic Auditorium in Pasadena, Calif. Tune in early for a preshow hosted by singer-actress Brandy and up-and-comer Ray J.

Ladies Man

7:30 p.m. on CBS

Donna (Sharon Lawrence) has always thought of herself as a relatively free-spirited type. But when Gene's (Stephen Root) new love interest, a sweet young thing (Nicole Ann Mohr), sheds her top during a hot-tub session, something Donna can't bring herself to do, she has a mini-identity crisis.

Frasier

8 p.m. on NBC

Frasier knows he's made it when a local restaurant wants to add his mug to its wall of celebrity caricatures in "Three Faces of Frasier." But the ego gratification soon turns to mortification as soon as he sees the drawing. "Caricature" means exaggeration for comic effect, but what the artist has done with Frasier's forehead is too much. No problem, though; the doctor has a cure for this — maybe.

Wednesday's Best Bets

lovie: Dear God

p.m. on CBS

A con artist (Greg Kinnear) is ught in one of his scams and or- ered by a judge to either get a real b or go to jail. He chooses the for- er and gets a job in a Los Angeles ost office, where he is assigned to e dead-letter department. There e ends up sorting through mail to lvis, Santa Claus and God.

oung Americans

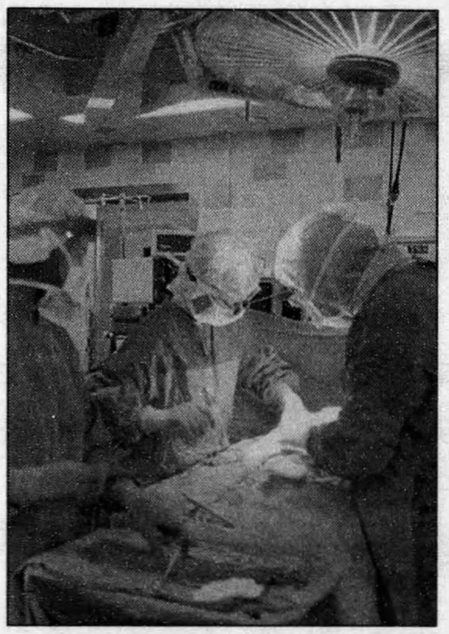
p.m. on WB

Faced with the impending sale of er family's business and home, ella (Kate Bosworth) takes to the oad with her friends in search of er mother, who holds the key to aving the place. Along the way, the gang has some tense moments while spending a night together in the wake of car trouble. The end of summer session at the academy is a time of revelations: bad news for Will (Rodney Scott), who learns he's losing his scholarship, and a shocker for everyone as the truth about Jake (Katherine Moennig) comes out. Mark Famiglietti also stars in the season finale, "Will Bella Scout Her Mom?"

American Justice

8 p.m. on A&E

Ten years ago, a two-day killing spree rocked Gainesville, Fla. Five female University of Florida students were fatally stabbed, and the town went into full panic mode. After a few false starts, police soon zeroed in on a suspect: a 36-year-old drifter whose DNA linked him to the crimes.



Team of Surgeons
HOPKINS 24/7

Hopkins 24/7

9 p.m. on ABC

This six-part miniseries has something you won't get from "ER" or "City of Angels": reality. It goes deep inside the operating rooms, doctors' lounges, meeting rooms and other areas off limits to visitors at Baltimore's Johns Hopkins, one of the world's great hospitals. The opener includes a profile of the chief of trauma surgery, who tries to stop street violence before it happens; another doctor's battle to save a young cancer patient; and a visit to the morbidity and mortality conference, where doctors discuss their mistakes. For comic relief, there's the tale of a very unusual patient: a sick sea turtle from the National Aquarium.

Law & Order

9 p.m. on NBC

The school bully (guest star Jacob Pitts), who happens to be fond of martial arts weaponry and violence-ridden video games, is the prime suspect in the grisly murder of another youth. But this won't be an easy case, especially for prosecutors McCoy and Carmichael, who are hampered by the disqualification of critical evidence and the terror of one witness.

Thursday's Best Bets

Movie: Ali: An American Hero

7 p.m. on FOX

Given the title, you know this is not going to be an uncomplimentary biography of the boxing legend. David Ramsey ("Con Air," "Three to Tango") stars as the man born Cassius Clay in Louisville, Ky., who in 1964 did for black pride what Joe Louis had done years earlier by beating Sonny Liston for the heavyweight championship. The movie traces Ali's career from those heady, controversial days through the landmark 1974 fight with George Foreman that gave him back the title. Clarence Williams III, Joe Morton and Vondie Curtis-Hall also star.

Charmed

7 p.m. on WB

"They're Everywhere" takes the concept of "brain drain" to literal extremes. A young man named Eric (guest star Greg Mehlman) finds the key to some secret-filled ancient tablets and becomes the target of warlocks who'll do anything to gain the tablets' power — including draining mortals' minds for knowledge.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Elizabeth Taylor" profiles the one-time child actress who became an even bigger star as an adult. In fact, she became one of those stars whose private life has attracted as much attention as her performing — if not more. With two best actress Oscars, seven husbands, and battles with a brain tumor and other life-threatening illnesses under her belt, Taylor at 68 is a true survivor.

ER

Movie: Becoming Dick

8 p.m. on E!

A struggling young actor (Harland Williams, "There's Something About Mary") decides that the old saying about nice guys finishing last must be true. He makes himself over into a jerk, landing a hot role on Broadway, and soon it's on to Hollywood. But while not-so-nice guys may finish first, they're also lonely. With the help of his new English butler (Robert Wagner), he tries to get back in touch with his inner good guy. Elizabeth Berkley also stars in this new comedy directed by Bob Saget, who has a cameo role.

ER

9 p.m. on NBC

Crises that could have been prevented haunt Drs. Kovac and Chen (Goran Visnjic, Ming-Na) in "Loose Ends." Kovac incurs the wrath of Benton (Eriq La Salle) for failing to check up on a patient who is in danger of losing a leg, while Chen discovers that an infant could have been spared a devastating brain seizure by a simple test.

Friday's Best Bets

Movie: Father of the Bride Part II
7 p.m. on TNT

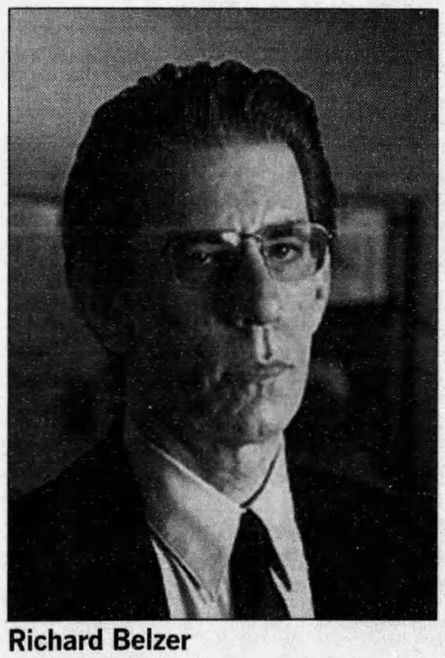
Steve Martin reprises the title role in this warmhearted 1995 sequel to 1991's "Father of the Bride." As his daughter and her new husband get ready to start a family, Dad is hit with the shocking news that his own family isn't complete yet; his wife is expecting a baby, too.

Movie: The Crying Game
7 p.m. on MAX

Writer-director Neil Jordan won the best screenplay Academy Award for this graceful 1992 drama, which was nominated for a total of six Oscars. Stephen Rea ("In Dreams," "Michael Collins") stars as an Irish Republican Army member who befriends a British soldier (Forest Whitaker) whom he's captured and later finds and falls in love with the man's girlfriend (Jaye Davidson). Even if you know the surprise ending, the film is worth seeing; if you don't, we'll stop here. Miranda Richardson also stars.

Making the Band
8:30 p.m. on ABC

All work and no play makes O-Town a dull boy band. So the guys are thrilled to have some R&R time in Cancun, Mexico. But one of their number has his vacation spoiled by an unhappy development: breaking up with his girlfriend. Erik-Michael Estrada, Ashley Parker Angel, Jacob Underwood and Trevor Penick star.



Richard Belzer
LAW & ORDER: SPECIAL VICTIMS UNIT

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit
9 p.m. on NBC

In "Remorse," Benson and Stabler (Mariska Hargitay, Christopher Meloni) finally arrest a suspect in a two-month-old sexual assault on a TV newswoman (Jennifer Esposito). They're hoping the man will lead them to his accomplice, but a bombing sets back the investigation and adds new names to the list of suspects. Meanwhile, the victim finds comfort from an unlikely source: Munch (Richard Belzer). Michelle Hurd also stars.

Investigative Reports
9 p.m. on A&E

Many a nine-to-fiver has fantasized about the hobo life: ditching the job, hopping a freight train and seeing the country on the cheap. But those who indulge that fantasy are in for a shock. The real hobo community — where folks look out for one another — is disappearing, and a new, unsavory element has taken over the rails: violent gangs that prey on novice hobos, often with fatal results. "Murder on the Tracks" talks with a few old-time hobos and with several young wannabes who seem unfazed by the very real boogeymen lurking in the boxcars.

Sunday
Ultimate Guide

10 a.m. on DISC

One of the smartest creatures on Earth is profiled in "Dolphins." Though the clicks and whistles that make up their language may seem simple, dolphins are very intelligent. Theories about how these mammals communicate and rationalize thoughts also are explored. 'TV-G'

Sunday
Movie: Rocket's Red Glare

7 p.m. on FAM

Todd Baker (Ryan Merriman) misses his deceased father terribly. In order to feel closer to him, the 17-year-old takes on the tremendous task of rebuilding a Mercury Redstone Rocket. His grandfather, a former astronaut, lends his expertise to the project.

Tuesday
Wild Discovery

6 p.m. on DISC

Much is known about the hippopotamus. Nicknamed "river horse," it lacks dexterity on land but is graceful in water. Its skin is thick and hairless, and it leaves the water at sundown to graze on grass. However, far less is known about how hippopotamuses communicate with one another. 'TV-G'

Saturday
Movie: Dennis the Menace

5 p.m. on TNT

Mason Gamble has the title role in this adaptation of the comic strip, which co-stars Academy Award winner Walter Matthau as the elderly neighbor with a gruff exterior but a gentle heart. Christopher Lloyd and Lea Thompson also star. 'TV-G'

After a disappointing season in 1999, the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame look to begin a new campaign on a winning note, but it won't be easy against a tough Texas A&M squad. Notre Dame finished 5-8 last year, its first losing season since 1986 and first seven-loss season since 1963. Junior quarterback Arnaz Battle leads a more experienced offense, which includes leading rusher (783 yards last season) Tony Fisher.

Backstory
4:30 p.m. on AMC

The fledgling series that takes you behind the scenes of the classics looks at the 1962 World War II epic "The Longest Day." As the program reveals, the on-screen action wasn't the only combat going on; "Cleopatra" was doing such a number on Twentieth Century Fox's finances that "Day" producer Darryl F. Zanuck was fighting his own war to save the project. Zanuck's son is among those sharing reminiscences. Donald Sutherland hosts.

Love Chronicles
6 p.m. on A&E

Intense, all-encompassing love is the stuff of songs, movies, soap operas and romance novels. In real life, however, it isn't always benign. Most of us outgrow the adolescent puppy-love phase before it gets out of hand. But the headlines tell us that some people simply don't know how to let go, with disastrous consequences. In "By Love Possessed: Obsessive Love," host John Corbett covers the spectrum, from those high-school infatuations to high-stakes adult obsessions that turn their sufferers into stalkers and even killers.

Movie: The Phantom
7 p.m. on ABC

Billy Zane ("Titanic") dons the passionate purple uniform of the "Ghost Who Walks" in this 1996 adaptation of the classic comic strip. Treat Williams ("The Deep End of the Ocean") plays the nasty Xander Drax, who has his eye on a collection of mystical skulls that will give him unlimited power to do evil. The Phantom's mission is, of course, to stop him and to rescue his hostage, the lovely Diana.

Movie: Drop Zone
8 p.m. on NBC

A U.S. marshal (Wesley Snipes) learns how to chute first and ask questions later as he attempts to stop a band of sky-diving terrorists. Gary Busey plays the leader of the gang, which is planning to jump into Washington, D.C., and steal valuable Drug Enforcement Administration data. Yancy Butler and Michael Jeter also star in this 1994 crime thriller, which is filled with spectacular aerial stunts.
